Digital literacy is one component of being a digital citizen - a person who is responsible for how they utilize technology to interact with the world around them. Digital technology allows people to interact and communicate with family and friends on a regular basis due to the "busy constraints" of today's world.

The digital world offers tremendous benefits to all of us. It provides platforms that allow us to connect and collaborate. It opens up opportunities to learn about new and important issues, and it empowers innovation in ways that were unimaginable just a few years ago.

Today, the advancement of technology has permeated every aspect of our lives. Employers expect their workforce to have the skills needed to live, work, and thrive in a digital society. Developing technical skills is crucial. But digital literacy doesn't just mean IT proficiency (although knowing how to use tech is now an essential life skill). Digital literacy = digital tool knowledge + critical thinking + social engagement. Digital literacy is necessary to become digital citizens; individuals responsible for how they use technology to interact with the world around them.

As a philosophy at Suryadatta is "Strive hard towards creating human centered development and building knowledge-centered society." Besides academics, the students are given different kind of training that help in developing themselves and society through digital literacy programs. Suryadatta College of Management Information Research & Technology believes that I.T. Proficiency is must for today's youth for successful execution of Digital India.

DIGITAL PAYMENT SURVEY AND AWARENESS PROGRAM FOR DEVELOPMENT OF STUDENTS AND SOCIETY A.Y. 2018-19

The Digital India programme is a flagship programme of the Government of India with a vision to transform India into a digitally empowered society and knowledge economy. As part of promoting cashless transactions and converting India into less-cash society, various modes of digital payments are available.

Suryadatta College of Management Information Research and Technology has organized DIGITAL PAYMENT AWARENESS PROGRAM for FARMERS WEEKLY MARKET at BAVDHAN Area Dist- Pune on Friday 6th September 2019

Under this program students of Suryadatta College of Management Information Research and Technology conducted digital awareness survey of merchants at FARMERS WEEKLY MARKET.

Wherein they found that many farmer merchants were not aware about the digital payment methods which are available. Some farmer merchants were aware about the digital payment methods but were not using those methods due to lack of knowledge.

Students spread awareness about digital payment methods and also gave importance about the same. Students helped them to download digital payment mobile based applications and ensured that they can operate it on their own.

Students also trained them convenient, easy, affordable, quick and secured manner of digital payments by using posters and newsletter.

They also described ADVANTAGES OF CASHLESS TRANSACTIONS as follows-

- Convenience and ease of transaction and is more secure compared to making transactions involving cash withdrawal.
- Drive the development and modernization of the payment system, promote transparency and accountability, reduce transaction costs, and decrease the size of the grey or informal economy. Help business people grow their customer base and resource pool, far beyond the limitations of their immediate geographic area.
- Adds up to environment as no tree will be cut for printing paper money.

Digital payment is a way of payment which is made through digital modes. In digital payment payer and payee both use digital modes to send and receive money. It is also called electronic payment.

As part of promoting cashless transactions and converting India into less-cash society, students explained various modes of digital payments which are available.

Some of these include the use of debit/credit cards, internet banking, mobile wallets, digital payment apps, Unified Payments Interface (UPI) service, mobile banking, etc.

India is estimated to be the economic superpower of the future. Globalization has empowered the country and its youth to grow significantly. However, large percentage of India's population still remains un-impacted to this progress.

This initiative by students made Farmer merchants able to contribute to Digital India vision.
